ACHSM Australasian College of Health Service Management
Better leadership. Healthier communities.

ahha australian healthcare & hospitals association
the voice of public healthcare

HOLMANWEBB LAWYERS

HEALTH LAW SEMINAR 2018

Overcoming the Challenges of Implementing an Integrated Corporate and Clinical Governance Framework in Health and Aged Care

7 June 2018
3.30pm (for 4pm start) – 6pm
Venue: Establishment Hotel (Room II, Level 3, 252 George Street)

This seminar provides an overview of governance obligations and the emergence of integrated governance. Panel members and participants will discuss how to overcome the traditional boundaries between corporate and clinical governance approach that can improve service delivery.

Timing	Overview
3.30pm – 4pm	Registration
4.00 – 4.15pm	Welcome ACHSM
4.15pm to 5pm	Corporate and clinical governance – Directors' duties and case studies Alison Choy Flannigan, Partner, Health, aged care & Life sciences, Holman Webb Lawyers John Van de Poll, Partner, Insurance, Holman Webb Lawyers Rachael Sutton, Partner, Employment Law, Holman Webb Lawyers
5pm to 5.45pm	Panel - Overcoming the Challenges of an Implementing an Integrated Corporate and Clinical Governance framework in health and aged care Dr Bernadette Eather, National Manager Clinical Quality and Patient Safety, Ramsay Health Care Dr Harvey Lander, Director Systems Improvement, Clinical Excellence Commission; Dr Linda Swan, Chief Medical Officer, Medibank Private Facilitator: Alison Choy Flannigan, Partner, Holman Webb [Aged Care rep – TBA]
5.45 to 6pm	Close Alison Verhoeven, Chief Executive Officer, AHHA
6pm – 8pm	Drinks and Networking