

By-law: Council membership of representatives of Associate Members and Life Members

2016/1:

Associate Members and Life Members may nominate representatives to the AHHA Council, on the basis of one representative per 20 Associate and Life Members each financial (membership) year. If there are more nominations than representative positions available, an electronic ballot will be conducted amongst these membership categories, managed by the AHHA Secretariat.