

FELLOWSHIP DEEBLE INSTITUTE FOR HEALTH POLICY RESEARCH

The Deeble Institute for Health Policy Research is currently offering a fellowship opportunity to an outstanding mid-career researcher with a background in health systems research or related research field. Supported by the Australian Healthcare and Hospitals Association (AHHA), the Fellow will lead the development of a Health Policy Issues Brief on:

Equitable access to healthcare: voluntary patient registration reforms

Applicants will be expected to have excellent writing skills and demonstrated strength in research and be able to contribute thought leadership to the Australian health reform agenda.

Further guidance on the Policy Brief will be provided in discussion with the successful applicant.

Eligibility: 5-15 years post PhD

Location: Virtual

Duration: 3 months

Stipend: $10,000.

Expressions of interest will need to include a cover letter, a two-page CV and two referee reports. Applications close COB 16 May 2023.

About the Deeble Institute for Health Policy Research

Named in honour of Professor John Deeble AO (1931-2018), the co-architect of Medicare, the Deeble Institute for Health Policy Research is the research arm of the Australian Healthcare and Hospitals Association (AHHA). Our goal is to make evidence the cornerstone for health policy development in Australia.

About the inaugural Deeble Institute Fellow

The inaugural Deeble Institute Fellowship was awarded to Professor Henry Cutler, Director, Macquarie University Centre for the Health Economy (MUCHE). Prof Cutler, a well-respected health economics expert, and has led several high profile projects relating to value-based care and healthcare financing including work with the Aged Care Financing Authority (ACFA), National Mental Health Commission, the Australian Bureau of Statistics and the Department of Health and Ageing. Prof Cutler's policy brief examined value based payment models in Australian healthcare, here.

For more information, please contact:

Adj AProf Rebecca Haddock

Executive Director Knowledge Exchange

Australian Healthcare and Hospitals Association

E: rhaddock@ahha.asn.au